Utility Metering 2016

The Vox Conference Centre
Resorts World, Pendigo Way
Birmingham
B40 1PU

Come and join us and learn

- How CMA outcomes may impact smart meter deployment
- What are the outstanding technical issues for meters and comms, and how they are being addressed?
- What is the true scale of the skills and resources challenge to deliver the smart programme commitment
- The status of customer engagement strategies and actions

The conference provides an excellent showcase and supply chain exhibition, together with the opportunity to network with industry experts, the metering manufacturing community and industry regulators.

The brand new state-of-the-art Vox Conference Centre is a stone's throw from the NEC and Birmingham International Airport and boasts 4K resolution screens, 5 star dining with free of charge on-site parking.
